Former Wins the Last Event in the Colors of His New Owner Who Backs Him Liberally-Two Jockeys Narrowly Escape Fatal Injuries-Odom's Ride Creates a Difference of Opinion

R Thomas visited Aqueduct yesterday and after a long conference with Sydney Paget he purchased the two-year-olds St Bellane, by St. Gatien-Bellane, and Niblick, by St. Gatien-Braw Lass, both of whom won at the first crack out of the box on last Friday Neither youngster has important stake engagements and no prices were made public. Mr. Thomas started St. Bellane n the last race yesterday and sent a comission into the ring large enough to win the youngster out, it is said. But it was a close call, for Redfern, who wore the Thomas ors for the first time this season, had to drive St. Bellane all the way down the retch to win by a head. The colt that made things so interesting for St. Bellane was Right Royal, a handsome son of Rapallo-Mrs. Delaney, for whom Newton Bennington paid $16,000 as a yearling at the Haggin sale last fall. Right Royal ran a magnificent race, considering that it was the at time he had faced the starter, and after the numbers had been hoisted experienced turfmen said that they were positive that the Rapallo colt has a brilliant future. In purchasing these two-year-olds Mr. Thomas makes good the prediction that he will coninue to buy horses this year whenever he and his partner, Alex Shields, see a good one. St Bellane appears to be a most promising , and the same opinion prevails regarding his stable mate, Niblick.

What might have been a fatal accident occurred in the fifth race, which, incidentally, lustrated the fallacy of sending more than fifteen horses to the post at such a narrow rack as Aqueduct. There were nineteer larters and Starter Fitzgerald had no end of ouble in getting them away. In the first griong there was so much crowding in the ad rush for the rail positions that H. E. towell's Candidate and T. G. Moller's Stepaway were knocked down. Jockeys Travers nd Miller were hurled underneath the feet of the horses, at least six of the racers passing over them, although not one of them stepped

The starter's carriage went to the scene of the accident on the run, but the jockeys, beond a few scratches, seemed to be unhurt When Miller reached the paddock he said to his employer, James McLaughlin: I've got an awful sore shoulder.

physician made an examination and declared that Miller was suffering from a broken collarbone. Because of a fatal cident at Brighton last year, the size of the fields was limited, with the idea of preventing further accidents. There have been several serious mishaps at Aqueduct in the past and is would seem to be advisable to take time by the forelock in view of yesterday's narrow Odom's ride on Red Knight in the second race was the cause of much discussion. Some of the sharps said that it was a magnificer piece of horsemanship, pointing to the fact that it was Odom's persistent whipping that landed the colt a winner by a head after some of the toughest racing luck ever seen at a local track. But the pessimists were sure that if Odom had not used poor judgment in the early stages the colt would not have been shut off and consequently would have come home on the bit.

Before the race, Odom told some friends in the paddock that if he did not win with Red Knight he would be willing to quit the business. This was such a strong tip that the information was spread broadcast and there was a wild plunge just as the horses Knight was not the only horse to be backed down in this race, for Jack Mc Hnnis's friends had the cue that Sweet Alice was ready, and lucky followers being George Langdon, who backed him confidently to show. Eugenia Burch, the well known race mare, o has won many rich stakes for her owner, Mrs. L. Curtis, carried top weight in this event, conceding all the way from nine to twenty-two pounds to her company. It was the first appearance of the Ben Strome mare. and her owner came to the track especially to see her run. Shaw handled her well, but some people were of the opinion that he began his run too late. There appears to be a general desire to back Sydney Paget's horses whenever they start. Acting on this basis, there were many happy bettors when Pink Garter, a full sister to Golden Cottage, won the first race at 4 to 1. Little Callahan, by the way, who rode the filly, is showing so much improvement that he bids fair to rank with some of the star lookeys before long.

In the fifth race Mr. Paget's Singing Master was always the favorite, and got a world of beoking, but this time the talent was wrong, for after securing a commanding lead the gelding exploded at the last furleng pole and came in ninth.

"Father Bill" Daly was again doomed to disappointment when his much talked of colt Amberiack failed to finish better than third in the last race. He was asked to carry a wealth of gold, and Odom subjected him an unmerciful whipping down the stretch, all to no purpose.

Starter Fitzgerald continued to hand out discipline yesterday. In the first race he fined each jockey $25 for disobedience and later set R. Fisher and Crimmins down for a day. Judging from the bad behavior of many horses at the post, which caused several unusual delays, more discipline is necessary, school their horses at the barrier.

The Oneck Stable's Rob Roy was claimed eut of the third race by H. C. Schultz, owner of St. Juvenal, for $1,490.

Burning Blass, who won the third race at 40 to 1. was owned by Mrs. C. Fellowes, Jr. last year and was a consistent loser. In the hands of his new trainer, W. R. Midgley, the Raeburn gelding shows a vast improve-ment. As he passed the judges a neck in front of Neither One, 50 to 1, two women in the grandstand collapsed. One of them had a $2 bet on Burning Glass a place, while came to the track together and stuck hatpins through the programme in their search for good things. The cold day sent the baseball men to the track in a body After the races most of them concluded that work on the diamond ould not win. F. E Shaw, entered in the Peconic Handicap, was not allowed to start because he had not been properly registered with the Jockey Club. April Shower and Right and True were the previous winners of this race. Thomas says that he will not be repre sented by a starter in the Excelsior Handican

BOSTON HORSE SHOW. New Yorkers Capture Many Prizes in the Different Classes. Boston, April 20.—Inclement weather had serious effect upon the attendance at the lorse Show to-day and this evening. The feature of the morning was the win of Mrs. W. S. Elliott of New York over Mrs. John ierken of Long Island in the class for ladies' saddle horses. Mrs. Elliott rode her big chestnut geiding Flashlight and Mrs. Jerken was mounted in her La Contributor. Extra canters about the ring were necessary to decide the winner, the blue ribbon being pinned upon Flashlight.

James H. Ever of New York captured the blue in the class for heavyweight saddle horses with his bay mare Madge. The mare was by far the best of the lot over the fences, and the award was a popular one.

Mrs. Gerken took a red ribbon in the class. Mrs. Gerken took a red ribbon in the class for ponies under saddle with her bay mare Tow Thorpe Queen, ridden by Buck. Reginald Vanderbilt drove his pair of high steppers, Fancy and Fad, against a lot of fine action animals in the afternoon. The judges thought Eben D. Jordan's two pairs were entitled to the blue and red ribbons, and gave the yellow to Mr. Vanderbilt. Mrs. Gerken took the H. C. with Newsboy and Lady Francis in this class.

Mrs. Elliott won another first in the class for saddle horses that had never taken a first prize previous to this show, riding her chestnut gelding Lee Rogers. Mrs. Gerken took the third prize in the class with her took the third prize in the class with her tenstnut Virginian. Mr. Vanderbilt took second prize in the class for ladies' driving horses with his black gelding Fad, driven by Mrs. Blaisdell. Mrs. Gerken won the third money with Belmar, a chestnut gelding. Mr. Vanderbilt captured a much coveted blue in the harness class to-night. He drove his bay mare Amazement to victory in a large class of animals open only to horses that had never won a ribbon previously. In the dealers' class for high steppers Strauss & Hexter of New York took first money in the class for sporting tandems with San Toy and Daisy Dean. or ponies under saddle with her bay mar-

CYCLISTS RACE IN BOSTON. Moran Wins in 25 Mile Paced Event From Butler and McLean.

BOSTON, April 20. - The racing season at the Revere Beach Cycle track opened yesterday auspiciously, for, although the weather was chilly, more than 5,000 persons witnessed a three-cornered race between James Moran, Nat Butler and Hugh McLean at twentyfive miles, with 4 horse-power motors for pace. Moran was the winner, his time being 36 minutes 34 1-5 seconds. Butler finished pace. Moran was the winner, his time being 36 minutes 34 1-5 seconds. Butler finished three-eighths of a mile behind Moran, while McLean was forced to quit in the twenty-first mile owing to the snapping of his chain. McLean caught his pace first and went away in the lead, holding that position until nearly five miles had been reeled off, when Moran came up into first place. In the seventeenth mile, when McLean was a lap in the rear of Moran and two laps in front of Butler, one of his tires punctured and he had to take a new machine.

McLean lost four laps in changing machines, and hooking on to his pace again he went out after Butler at a great rate when once he got going and had nearly caught him, when the chain gave away and he retired. Butler made a great race of it against Moran during the last five miles and the spectators were on their feet yeiling most of the time. The Chelsea boy was too much for the Cambridge rider and he held the slight lead to thefinish.

Fully 5,000 persons saw Harry Caldwell of Manchester, N. H., defeat George Leander and Bill Stinson in the twenty-mile big motor raced race at the Charlos River track yesterday. Some remarkable time was made, inles being covered as low as 1:07. Leander led for the first twelve miles, when a puncture in one of his tires caused him to lose a mile to Caldwell, who continued in the lead to the finish. The track was in perfect condition and exceedingly fast for this time of year. Caldwell's time for the distance was 24 minutes 94-5 seconds.

Get Away Day at Memphis

MEMPHIS, April 20.—The Peabody Hotel Handicap at a mile and an eighth drew a good crowd to Montgomery Park for the closing day's sport. The weather was very disagreeble, cold, raining and the track was six inches deep in mud for the only time during the meeting. Horse owners did not fancy the going and there were four scratches in the handicap, leaving only six starters. Claude nandicap, leaving only six states. Claude got away in front at the break and stayed there to the finish. Little Boout challenged him in the stretch but could not head the Daly horse. It was an exciting finish with Claude a very short nose in front. Luralighter was third. Summary:

SPRING WINS THE PECONIC.

GETS THE BEST OF THE START AND BEATS JACQUIN.

Because of the cold wave only the regulars about 5,000 of them-went to Aqueduct vesterday, where they kept constantly on he move to escape being frozen as to finger and toes. The racing was thrilling enough at times to warm the blood and some of the finishes were so hot that the crowd forgot all about the winter weather The Peconic Handicap, for three-year-olds at six furlongs, was the stake feature. 'The Goughacres Stable's Spring was a pronounced favorite at 8 to 5, with Davy Johnson's Jacquin packed down to 16 to 5 from fours. At the getaway Spring got a big advantage, which he maintained at all stages, winning easily by a length and a half in 1:27 2-5. Jacquin, with a better start, might have taken Spring's measure, but under the circumstances he had to be content with second money, half a length before Monent, 50 to 1.

The best finish was in the handicap for three-year-olds and upward at six furlongs, which served to demonstrate the remarkable finishing ability of George Odom. Red Knight ruled favorite, with Sweet Alice, All Gold and Eugenia Burch not far behind in point of popularity. Red Knight was shut off twice before the head of the stretch was reached and nearing the last furlong pole he was in such a complete pocket that Odom had to take him up and come around on the outside.

this time and Eugenia Burch was fighting it out neck and neck with All Gold. Odom went to the whip and, never ceasing punishment, he kept Red Knight going until the Knight of Ellerslie colt got up in time to win by a neck from All Gold, who was a short head before Eugenia Burch. Three lengths back came Shrine and Mackey Dwyer, heads apart. The winner was much the best and with better racing luck would have experienced no trouble at the end. He was timed

Another startling finish occurred in the last race, for two-year-olds at four and a half furlongs, when E. R. Thomas's St. Beilane, 3 to 2 favorite, and Newton Benning-ton's Right Royal, 4 to 1, hooked up for a long, gruelling drive through the last furlong, the former winning by a nose in 0:54. Royal was three lengths before Bill Daly's Amberjack, second choice. Sydney Paget's Pink Garter, 4 to 1, took the first race by two lengths from David Gideon's Muozon, 10 to 1, who was a head in front of Pygmalion, 5 to 1. Salad Days and Filia, equal favorites, were run off their feet in the early stages. Two long shots, Burning Glass, 40 to 1, and Neither One, 50 to 1, made the layers rejoice by running first and second in the third race, the former winning by a neck and the latter beating Rob Roy, the odds on favorite, by a head. The Bowery was a head behind.

After making most of the running in the fifth event, Sydney Paget's Singing Master, favorite, blew up, while Frank Farrell's Pretorius, second choice, never had a look in. Phaon, 6 to 1, closed strongly under a Morokanta, 30 to 1, the latter beating Mary Worth, 15 to 1, a head. Three favorites

Winter lingering in the lap of the baseball season drove the phyers and patrons of the contests being postponed on account of cold weather and snow took place. Winter has een lingering in the lap of spring ever since the pennant season opened, but the players woold the icy winds until yesterday, when an additional drop in the thermometer put temporary stop on the playing, which so ar his, on account of the frostiness of the tmosphere, been more or less abortive.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Chicago and Detroit played a wild game to-day in ice and frost, the home team finally pulling out the victory. Altrock was unhittable, but errors by the Chicago outfit at critical moments let Detroit tie the score. Successive errors by Sullivan and Huelsman permitted the tring run to travel around. Tannehill led off in the eighth for Chicago with a two-bagger. Huesiman died on a grounder, and a single by Sullivan scored what proved to be the winning run. Detroit's sharp fielding and the pitching of Altrock were the features of what would otherwise have been a tiresome game. The score:

The grounds and stands have been much improved since last year and will be gayly decorated to-day. The New Yorks have been playing fine ball since the season opened and have yet to meet with a defeat. The gates will be opened at 1 o'clock this afternoon and play will begin at 3:30. Mrs. De Wolf Hopper will throw out the new ball.

Games Scheduled for To-day. NATIONAL LEAGUE. Philadelphia in New York; Brooklyn in Boston Cincinnati in Pittsburg; St. Louis in Chicago. AMERICAN LEAGUE. New York in Philadelphia; Cleveland in St. Louis.

Baseball Notes. The case of the ticket sellers and players arrested at Ridgewood last Sunday came up yesterday before Magistrate Connorton in the Flushing police court. The defence was that admission was not charged, but that an arbitrary price was put on the score cards. The Magistrate said that he would have to take the case under advisement for a week.

YOU have heard a good deal about the United Cigar Stores! Well, there's always a lot of talk about good cigars. Did you ever know the man who didn't like to tell about "the good cigar he had just discovered." That has been one of the factors in our big success. Smokers are quick to discover real merit and when it is coupled with such unusually low prices, this great business is not to be wondered It was all brought about by our olon plan of buying and selling. We save the in-between profits and expenses and YOU get the saving. If there is any merit at all in our plan; if it means anything to YOU, and we know it does, it must show in the quality of the cigar we are going to tell you about now. The

TROUBLES OF CORNELL CREW

The Oarsmen Go on Strike Against the Training Table. ITHACA, N. Y., April 20 .- Not in a long while has the Cornell undergraduate body been so worked up as it has been over the strike on the part of the crew men against composed of sixteen men, left the table last night in a body, and until a suitable boarding place is provided for them there will be no peace eit er in rowing circles or among the undergraduates. Last fall the training table which has been used for years was transferred to a new boarding house. Coach Courtney furnished menu of the food he wanted for but instead of getting a substantial diet prescribed, it is stated that the men got knick knacks, including charlotte russe, peach shortcake, jellies and jams. As a result nearly every member of the crew has been out of

Some time ago Coach Courtney told the some time ago Coach Courtney told the men that they were warranted in quitting the place until better food was provided. But the men sought to avoid trouble. Last night the men returned from a twelve mile row as hungry as bears. When they saw no prospect of satisfying their appetite the trouble followed. The condition of affairs is all attributed to the athletic council's trying to economize. Coach Courtney says that unless the matter is speedily adjusted Cornell may as well withdraw from the races in which she is entered. For he cannot develop a winning crew without a good training table.

Columbia Defeated at Lacrosse Swarthmore's lacrosse team defeated the Columbia twelve in a game played yesterday on South Field by a score of 3 goals to 0.

The Pennsylvanians made all their tallies the reansylvanians made all their tallies in the first half and held the local players safe throughout the second period. A chilling wind made fast and accurate play practically impossible, but both teams showed good form for this time of the season. Swarthmore's third tally was scored after the whistle had blown for the end of the half, but was allowed, as the referee had not heard the whistle.

"League for Bodily Purity."

Lecture by Dr. H. H. Kane at Carnegie Lyceum Last Night

To Clergymen, Doctors, School Superintendents, Teachers and Jour-nalists. Steps Taken Toward the Formation of the League.

The Teaching of the Young and the Pro-

One of the most remarkable lectures ever facts, strong in his ideas and firm in his convictions, to an audience exceptionally brilliant, was that given by Dr. H. H. Kane of New York last night at Carnegie Lyceum to Ministers, Lawyers, Doctors, School Superintendents and Journalists.

After giving a number of authorities for his statements regarding the intermarriage of the diseased, sterility and the dangers run by the innocent public, Dr. Kane fully outlined his idea of the formation of "LEAGUE OF BODILY PURITY" that would have for its purpose the full education of the young in matters of sexual hygiene, the teaching the public the dangers it runs and the best means for avoiding them, the limita-tion of prostitution, the establishment of special venereal hospitals and the necessity for a health certificate by both parties in every case of marriage. The whole lecture was listened to with the utmost attention and interest by the large and intelligent audience. Among those present, in boxes and in the body of the house, were General Geo. O. Eaton, U. S. A.; Hon. Edward Swan, Count de la Boissiere, Edward Staton, J. J. Caldwell, Dr. W. H. Hale, Dr. E. de M. Brum-bach, Dr. Alfred S. Houghton of the Civil Service Commission, Dr. F. H.
